Four of the Alexander Island Events Captured By Pirst Choices,

SILVER QUEEN THE SURPRISE

At the Long Price of Twelve to One Harry Lewis Rode Silver Quoen to Victory in the Last Race-Three Winners at St Asoph Were the Public's Pick.

Speculation was lively at Alexander Island. course yesterday, and as four of the five races were won by first choices the talent had a good day. At least 2,500 people were present and they were treated to excellent sport. The only upset came in the last event when Silver Queen, at 12 to 1, got the decision by a ecent margin.

A noticeable feature of the sport was the success of recent arrivals at the track, all five events going to such. Ataman ran a very different race than the last thee out, much to the surprise of the form players. Summa-

THERE WAS NO RAID. Neither Were the Pinkertons Discharged

by the St. Asaph Track Authorities. The statement was published under display headlines in the Post of yesterday morning that "Major Moore and Inspector Hollinberger issued a quiet order to five detectives yesterday (Monday) morning, which will greatly lighten the work of Sheriff Veitch's deputies at the St. Asaph race track, and also have a tendency to make a score or two of 'crooked' race followers hunt holes or other hiding places," etc.

The article also stated that there had been and article also stated that there had been a raid, and further, that the Pinkerton detectives had been debarred from the track as guardiana, by the State law, "which protects the sacred soil from Pinkertonian invasion, and with this club the sheriff proceeded to drive the aliens out of his builtwick, etc. Referring to the article last evening In-spector Hollinberger said that none of the Washington detectives had been detailed for duty at the race track, "as" said he, "we have no authority there at all."

have no authority there at all."

He also denied that the Pinkerton detectives had been supplanted by Virginia constables or deputies, and aided the statement that the track was still being policed by Pinkertons, although the original number of them—twenty-six—had been cut down to reduce expenses. The inspector knew of no raid, and expressed surprise that such statements should have been published.

H. D. McIntyre, secretary of the Virginia Joekey Cinb, yesterday dealed emphatically that Bob Pinkerton had been dismissed from the charge of the St. Asoph track. The only truth in the report, ascording to Mr. McIntyre, was the reduction of the force of Pinkerton men originally employed at the course, and it was made to cut down expenses. The secretary socuted the idea of any conflict between the Virginia authorities, the joekey tween the Virginia authorities, the jockey club, and the Pintertons. Several local mon had been given employment for the detection of possible crooks halling from this vicinity and who would be unknown to the Pinkerto people.
